

Go Off Piste at Alexander's this Winter

Alexander's, renowned for its plush palm court inspired interiors and lush Mediterranean heated sun terraces, is all set to transport you to its magical Alpine hideaway this winter. From November 19, its chic Secret Garden will be transformed into Off Piste, an enchanting pop-up Après Ski dining experience.

A bespoke hideaway ski chalet, bedecked with stylish handpicked Scandinavian interiors and oozing its own version of cosy hygge charm, is all set to take over the entire Secret Garden, nestled next to Skipton's Leeds Liverpool canal.

Catherine White, general manager of Alexander's said, "Off Piste was a tremendous success last year, attracting everyone from families to festive parties, who all fell in love with its stunning aesthetic and alternative winter menu. The pop-up chalet feels decadent and relaxing with its tactile faux fur throws and ambient twinkling lighting. People just loved its absolute uniqueness and the private exclusivity of it all."

To tie in with the Alpine décor, executive head chef, Struan Macintyre has crafted a series of European Après Ski style sharing menus, which includes cheese fondue, beer cooked frankfurter sausages and a cured fish smorgasbord, plus winter warmers like roast chestnuts and winter soup and pulled pork with flat breads, apple sauce and crackling. There will also be toasty warm festive cocktails, hot winter toddies, luxury hot chocolates and for true off piste dare-devils, shot paddles!

Said Struan, "Off Piste incorporates a range of menus from a children's Little Reindeer Menu for just £10pp, to our ultimate 'Black Run' menu, which is effectively a full festive feast comprising the best artisan charcuterie, homemade pickles and locally sourced fish, meats and cheeses. Like all Alexander's dishes, this menu brings together quality ingredients with authentic seasoning and flavours in an exceptional way."

Available from November 19 to January, there are just a few short weeks to enjoy this remarkable sensory and culinary experience. Off Piste is suitable for tables of two to larger groups of 30, with Sunday appearances from Santa throughout December.

Alexander's Kitchen also offers a more traditional festive dining experience with a selection of seasonal sharing boards, such as butter and sage roasted breast of turkey and 14 hour braised ox cheek.
