For one night only: Yeadon Town Hall announces exciting April shows

Through The Decades with Roy Orbison & Buddy Holly and The Wildboys 80s tribute band arrive at Yeadon Town Hall in April.

April is an exciting month for Yeadon Town Hall. Yeadon Town Hall CIC is taking over the venue from Leeds City Council from 1st April, pledging to restore and refresh the building. The arts venue is being given a new lease of life - and April's upcoming events are just a hint at the excitement to come.

Through the Decades with Roy Orbison & Buddy Holly (Friday 19th April, 7.30pm, tickets from £19)

Through the Decades celebrates two of the world's greatest musicians: Roy Orbison and Buddy Holly. This creative combo is sure to have audiences up on their feet and jiving along to classic tunes like Pretty Woman, That'll Be the Day and Peggy Sue. Join musicians Darren Page and Marc Robinson fresh from their UK and European tour dates to share a rock 'n' roll evening full of nostalgia and unforgettable hits.

The Wildboys (Friday 26th April, 7.30pm, tickets from £15)

Yeadon Town Hall is being transported back to the grooving 1980s for one night only... with a disco lasting 'till midnight. The Wildboys sure know how to put on a party, and will be covering unforgettable hits from one of the very best decades of music. The Wildboys will be joined by Vanessa Knight, who will stun audiences with her impressive vocals. Expect soaring power ballads, epic rock anthems and aching feet as you dance the night away.

Jamie Hudson, Director of Yeadon Town Hall CIC, said: "We love bringing unique shows to Yeadon Town Hall for one night only, providing a really varied and unique programme of events for our audiences. This month we're going on a whistle-stop tour of the 1950s and 1980s - there's never a dull moment!"
