TV'S MOST ADVENTUROUS TRAVELLER IS HEADING TO YORK

With sold out signs at theatres around the UK for Simon Reeve's first ever theatre tour, the much-loved TV traveller announces a series of extra dates for autumn 2019, visiting York Barbican on Friday 18th October 2019.

With incredible reaction from audiences, the tour has seen Reeve share thrilling and truly inspiring tales from his adventures in more than 120 countries; from hunting with the Bushmen of the Kalahari, dodging bullets on frontlines, tracking lions on foot to being detained for spying by the KGB.

An Audience with Simon Reeve is not only a fascinating and educational show, but at times, shocking, moving, inspirational and hilarious!

Simon's 20 TV series include Mediterranean, Caribbean, Indian Ocean, Russia, Tropic of Cancer and Equator. His BBC documentaries have been shown in more than 60 countries around the world! Simon explores and explains the world for tens of millions of TV viewers globally, travelling in a unique way that blends adventure with serious issues.

Hear Simon talk about his humble start in life, how he became an author and TV presenter, who has since met some of the most extraordinary people on the planet extreme corners of the planet. Simon's most recent book, a memoir Step by Step was published in September 2018 and has become a best seller.

This show includes exclusive multi-media footage, and a 20-minute Question & Answer session.
