

Jack's Batch 34 Brew day

Today we are delighted to announce that Jack's Batch 34 (his squad number) has been brewed by the man himself.

Yorkshire cricketer Jack Leaning said "I'm really pleased to finally get the brew finished, we have spent many hours trying to get the recipe right, I think we've created a beer that I would enjoy in my local, the Victoria Hotel, York.

It is also great to be able to promote a charity very close to my heart in the Three Bear's Foundation (www.justgiving.com/companyteams/ThreeBearsFoundation) by donating 5p for every pint sold to them. This will help further raise awareness of the amazing work that has been carried out by Mark Burn and others raising thousands of pounds already in the fight against pancreatic cancer.

The beer is a refreshing blonde ale with a citrusy finish that at 3.8% is perfect session beer for the summer".

Brewery Manager Ryan Truswell further added;

"We are delighted to be able to create a beer with Jack and the Three Bears Foundation. We are hoping that you enjoy it just as much as we did in creating it. We're incredibly proud to have a capped Yorkshire cricketer supporting our brand, as we are very much proud of our Yorkshire roots. We've chosen the malts for the brew from acclaimed Yorkshire maltsters, Thomas Fawcetts".

As well as being available direct from the Brewery, Jack's Batch 34 has also been picked up by a national wholesaler to be promoted throughout July. So hopefully you'll be able to try Jack's very own beer where ever you are, be it St.Ives or The Isle of Skye.

Cheers!
